

Municipal Employment Readiness - Durham College Micro-credential

Program of Study 2021/2022

- Students starting in the 2021/2022 academic year (September - August) must follow the Program of Study shown below.
- If you began your studies prior to the 2021/2022 academic year, please contact the Centre for Professional and Part-time Learning at 905-721-3052 or ppl@durhamcollege.ca to obtain the Program of Study that applies to your start date.
- This micro-credential is an open enrolment, competency-based program. Students can enroll and begin their studies at any time throughout the year. As a competency-based credential, students purchase one or more defined blocks of time to access the program. All students must begin by purchasing a two-month time block (includes all 3 micro-courses).
- The three micro-courses in this program are; Municipal Legislation and Governance, Municipal Structure, Roles & Responsibilities, and Effectiveness in Municipal Government.
- Upon registration, students have access to the first of three micro-courses. Each time a student successfully completes a micro-course (within the purchased time block) they will automatically be granted access to the next micro-course.
- A digital badge will be awarded upon completion of this program (the completion of all 3 micro-courses). Individual micro-courses are only added to a student's academic record upon the successful completion of the program (all 3 micro-courses).
